SCAM ALERT: Fraudulent Text Messages Targeting Utah Motorists

SALT LAKE CITY (March 12, 2026) – The Utah State Tax Commission’s Motor Vehicle Division (DMV) is warning the public about a fraudulent text message circulating in Utah that falsely claims the recipient has unpaid traffic fines and threatens enforcement and legal actions if immediate payment is not made. A picture of the text message is below.

Scammers commonly use these deceptive tactics to pressure individuals into making payments without verifying the legitimacy of the claim.

How to Protect Yourself:

- Verify before paying – If you receive a suspicious notice regarding a traffic ticket or any other DMV related matter, contact the Utah DMV directly at 801-297-7780 to confirm its authenticity.
- Do not respond to the text message – Avoid clicking any links or calling any phone numbers listed in the fraudulent messages.
