

TC-62PR Schedule B
Statement of the Contractor/Repairman

TC-62PR_B

Rev. 6/26

This statement is for the Application for Refund of Utah Sales and Use Tax filed by:

Buyer's name:

Total refund request amount:

Time covered by this request:

I, the undersigned, have personal knowledge of the attachment and conversion to real property of the construction materials and/or fixtures shown on the attached schedule, and can verify that:

Initial The construction materials and/or fixtures were converted to real property per the requirements of Utah Administrative Rule R865-19S-58.

Initial I understand that purchases of construction materials and fixtures are taxable to the contractor or repairman that converts the materials to real property unless an exemption under UCA §59-12-104 applies.

I understand that knowingly making false statements on this form is fraud. Under penalties of perjury, I state that the information provided here and on the attached schedule(s) is true and complete.

Contractor/Repairman's Name (Print)	Relationship to Applicant	Project Name
Project Address		Phone number
Signature		Date

*If there are multiple projects and/or addresses, attach a schedule listing each project and address, and the purchases included in the application that were converted to real property for each of the locations.

Note: The Business Taxes and Discovery Division may further investigate any transactions related to this form, which may include requests for more documents.

To review the Privacy Notice regarding the collection and use of your personal data, scan this QR code, or visit tax.utah.gov/privacy